Brethren & Neighbours,
Being Informed that you are met together to do something to make my Salary good with respect to the fall of Billy,
This is to Propose to you that for the prevention of a Yearly Debate upon this matter & any uneasiness that may arise thereby, as also from y<sup>e</sup> consideration of the great charge the Town is at to pay the Country & Schoolmasters Rates I will accept of five Pounds a Year for three years for y<sup>e</sup> fall of Billy, though I suppose much more might be Justly required on that account.

Louthboro
Oct: 19: 1736.

Nathan Stone.

Postscript, If any are of the mind to pay their rates to me in work, I will readily take it in that way, & leave it to any ~~any~~ Indifferent persons to Judge of the worth of their work.

Brethren, & Neighbours,

I find by an Attested Copy of your Votes, that on March 14th last, the Town voted that they would do something toward the defraying the charge of the Funeral of my lately Deceased Wife; and also that it was proposed & Voted to do it by way of Subscription. In consequence hereof, I have received Ninety Five Pounds, Ten Shillings, Old Tenor. Now for the respect herein shown to Her Memory, and the kindness expressed to me, I heartily thank the Town, in general, and the Subscribers & other Donors, in particular. So wishing that God would render unto you, even seven fold into your Bosoms, & enable me, as I am from time to time reaping your carnal things, to sow unto you Spiritual things, in such a manner, as that we may all, of the Spirit, reap Everlasting Life, I subscribe my Self
